

Biennial Health and Safety Conference 2009
 Tuesday 3 November

Programme

0900 - 1000 Registration and Exhibition

- | | | |
|-------------|---|--|
| 1000 | Welcome and introduction | Andrew Braund,
Head of Health and Safety,
CPI |
| 1010 | Key Note speech: Leading from the Top | Clive Bowers,
CEO, Smurfit Kappa Group |
| 1025 | Anatomy of a Disaster “Explosion at BP Texas City Refinery” March 23 2005 | |
| | In March 2005, 15 workers were killed and 180 others were injured, when an explosion occurred at a BP refinery. This 10 minute computer animation, illustrates the events leading up to the blast, and sets the scene for this year’s conference. | Video, U.S. Chemical
Safety Board |
| 1035 | Managing Process Safety | |
| | Industry leaders have a critical role to play in effectively managing process safety, identifying potential serious/fatal activities and not becoming complacent by relying on injury statistics. | David Snowball,
HSE Regional Director |
| 1105 | Break | |
| 1120 | Business Improvement Framework: Securing Change | |
| | A structured approach to business improvement, and how using a people centered approach, a shared vision and employee involvement can help to deliver sustainable improvements. | Martin Gummery, MD, and
Sarah Stephenson,
Operations Director,
Newleaf International Ltd |
| 1200 | “Say No, Say Yes” | |
| | The launch of CPI and Unite, paper industry campaign. | Martin Oldman,
Director General, CPI
Tony Burke,
Assistant General Secretary,
Unite
David Snowball, HSE |

1230

Lunch and Exhibition

1330

Process Safety and Corporate Manslaughter

Using recent case studies, highlight how the Police/HSE are investigating accidents 18 months into the Corporate Manslaughter Act, and what “lies ahead”.

Ron Reid,
Shoosmith Solicitors

1410

Why do people break the rules?

How humans are pre-disposed to seek out the easy or simplest route, and the need for job design to recognize this and make the “the easy way the safe way”.

Pippa Brockington, HSE
Human Factors Specialist and
Andy Godbold,
Divisional SHE, Manager
DS Smith Packaging

1450

Leading Change in Difficult Times

How to achieve effective leadership from the top, and the benefits of a positive safety management system, that can include increase in productivity, improvement in quality and customer relations.

Prof John Oliver,
Director of Team Enterprise
Solutions LLP

1550

Closing Address

Bob McLellan,
President, CPI

1600

CLOSE